THE REAL ESTATE MARKET

NEW LONG ACRE SQUARE THEA. TRE ON A $4,000,000 LEASEHOLD.

The Acro Amusement Co. Plans a Luna Park on Washington Heights-A Builder Trades Off Two New Loft Buildings for a Valuable Broadway Corner Site.

Dealing at private contract was more active yesterday and of better quality than it has been on any preceding day this week. The southeast corner of Broadway and Forty-third street, as reported in detail in another column, was leased by Harry Levey at an aggregate rental of something more than $4,000,000. The plot, which measures 104.2x195.9 feet, will be improved with a twelve story office and theatre building. The lease contains renewal privileges for three additional twentyone year terms at 4 per cent. on the reappraised valuation of the land.

This is the third office and theatre building projected of late in the Long Acre Square section, the Kerbs-Wertheim-Schiffer syndicate having secured the southeast corner of Broadway and Forty-sixth street and the Dillingham Theatre Company having acquired the Shanley plot surrounding the northwest corner of Broadway and Fortysixth street as sites for structures of this type. The deals in connection with all of the sites have been put through by the McVickar, Gaillard Realty Company within Mevickar, daniard healty company within the last six months.

Still another place of amusement is contemplated on Washington Heights. It is to be a reduced copy of Dreamland and Lana Park. The scheme involves the Luna Park. The scheme involves the erection of a concrete structure on the block bounded by Audubon and St. Nicholas avenues, 190th and 191st streets, the dimensions of which are about 350x200. Interests identified with the project have options on all of the property, with the exception of the northwest corner of Audubon avenue and 190th street, 130x220, for which negotiations are also under way.

Articles of incorporation are about to be filed at Albany by the backers of the project. The concern will be known as project. The concern will be known as the Aero Amusement Company and will be capitalized at $250,000. The attorneys are Monfried & Feinberg. George Tilyou, proprietor of Steeplechase Park at Coney Island, is said to be one of the process. d, is said to be one of the promoter of the scheme.

In addition to the foregoing transaction a big trade was closed by which a builder disposed of two new loft buildings in return for a Broadway corner in the wholesale district. The deal, of course, foreshadows a new building operation.

Private Sales.

BROADWAY.—Frank A. Seitz has sold to Philip Braender, Nos. 693, 695 and 697 Broadway, southwest corner of Fourth street, three five story buildings, on plot 80.5x74; also the adjoining property at Nos. 4 and 6 West Fourth street, a six story building, on plot 38x80. In exchange for the Broadway corner Mr. Braender gave the eight story loft building, at Nos. 41 and 43 East Twelfth street, on plot 50.8x117.7x irregular, between University place and Broadway. Mr. Braender also owns the two loft buildings at Nos. 34 and 36 East Tenth street, one of which also figured in the trade. Mr. Braender will improve his Broadway purchase with a business building. Mr. Seitz acquired the Broadway parcel from the Equitable Life Assurance Society in April, last year, and bought the adjoining street parcel from Baruch Wentheim. They make a plot 80x10.
